The Law Regulating Newspapers and Periodicals.

1 Subscribers who do not give express notice to the contrary are considered as wishing to continue their subscriptions

2 If subscribers order the discontinuance of their papers the publisher may continue to send them until all arrearages are paid and subscribers are responsible for all the numbers sent.

3 If subscribers neglect or refuse to take their papers from the office to which they are directed, they are held responsible till they have settled their bills and ordered their papers discontinued.

4 The Courts have decided that a refusal to take a newspaper or periodical from the Post Office, without notifying the publisher and the payment of all arrearages, is prima facie evidence of fraud.

5 Subscribers to newspapers or periodicals who are able to pay so long as the paper can be sent to the residence of the party, the terms of subscription unless notice is sent of such removal to the publication office.

Whig and Courier.

From the Gardiner Pearl

A Run For Life.

We remember hearing the following anecdote when a boy, and having never seen it in print, will try our hand at writing it out. We think the scene was laid in Chesterville, our native town, but are not sure upon that point. Of course the names are fictitious.

John Smith was a very industrious, hard working young man of twenty three years. Being the eldest child and only son, he had had always remained at home, assisting his father on the farm. John was much respected by every one in the neighborhood, and many a bright eyed girl had secretly thought she would like to change her name to Mrs John Smith. But John was no lady's man. The fact was, John Smith was bashful. He would rather hoe potatoes all day than undergo the ceremony of an introduction to a young lady. Not that John disliked the dear creatures—far from it, we believe that he, in common with all bashful but well meaning men entertained the very highest respect and admiration for them. And this, no doubt, was the principal cause for his bashfulness. He felt that they were superior beings, and that he was unworthy to associate with them upon terms of equality. But we cannot stop to moralize.

Nancy Clark was the daughter of a very respectable farmer, whose lands adjoined the Smith farm. Nancy was a pretty saucy little witch, and she liked John Smith.

One August afternoon John Smith's sister had a quilting. His father had gone to Smith's Mill, and John was left to repair some tools, to be ready on the morrow to commence mowing the meadow grass. Suddenly it occurred to John that if he remained about the house during the afternoon, he would be called in at tea time and required to do the honors of the table. To avoid this he quietly shouldered his scythe and stole away to the meadow, a half a mile distant, fully resolved that he would not leave there until it was so dark that he could not see to mow, and thus avoid meeting the girls.

The meadow was surrounded on all sides by a thick forest which effectually shut out what little breeze there might chance to be stirring. The sun poured in its rays as though the little meadow was the focus point where the heat was all concentrated. John mowed and sweat—sweat and mowed until he was obliged to sit down and cool off. Then it occurred to John that if the frock of his pants he might be much more comfortable. There could be no impropriety in it for he was entirely concealed from observation and there was not the slightest reason to suppose that he should be seen by any person.

So John stript off and with no covering save the under linen—commonly called a shirt—he resumed his work. He was just congratulating himself upon the good time he was having, and the lucky escape he had made from a meeting with the girls when he chanced to disturb a huge black snake, a genuine twister with a white ring round his neck.

Now John was no coward but he was mortally afraid of snakes. Self preservation was the first passage that flashed upon John's mind, and legs take care of the body! was the next. Dropping his scythe, and spinning round like a top he was ready to strike a 2 40 gait, when at that moment the snake drew near enough to hook its crooked teeth into John's shirt just above the hem—With a tremendous spring, John started off with the speed of a locomotive. His first jump took the snake clear from the ground and as John stole a hasty glance over his shoulder, he was horrified to find the reptile securely fastened to the extremity of his only garment while the speed with which he rushed forward kept the serpent extended at an angle of ninety degrees with his body.

Here was a quandary. If he stopped the snake would coil about his body and squeeze him to death. If he continued the race, he must soon fall from sheer exhaustion. On he flew, scarce daring to think how his dreadful race was to end. Instinctively he had taken the direction of home and as he emerged from the forest, and began to catch glimpses of the house, a feeling of security came over him—Suddenly, flashed across his mind the true state of affairs—his father gone—the quilting—and worst of all, the girls! This new horror sent the blood back curdling about his heart, and he came to a dead halt. The next moment he felt the body of the cold, clammy monster in contact with his bare legs, his tail creeping around them in a sort of coaxing way, as though his snakeship only meditated a little fun by way of tickling John upon the knees.

This was too much for human endurance—With a yell, such as man never utters save when in mortal terror, poor John again set forward at break neck speed, and once more had the pleasure of seeing the snake resume his horizontal position somewhat after the fashion of the tail of a comet.

On, on they flew! John forgot the quilting—forgot the girls—forgot everything but the snake. For the first time in his life he was "seriously thinking of his latter end."

His active exercise (he paid particular attention to his running), together with the excessive heat, had brought on the nose bleed, and as he ran, with ears erect and head thrown back his chin, throat and shirt bosom were stained with the flowing stream.

His first, wild shriek had startled the quilters, and forth they rushed, wondering if some mad Indian was not prowling about. By this time John was within a few rods of the barn, still running at the top of his speed, his head turned so that he might keep one eye on the snake, and with the other observe the course he must take. The friendly barn now concealed him from sight of the girls. He knew they were in the yard, having caught a glimpse of them as they rushed from the house. A few more bounds and he should be in their midst. For a moment modesty overcame fear and he once more halted. The snake evidently pleased with his rapid transportation manifested his gratitude by attempting to enfold the legs the legs of our hero within his embrace.

With an explosive "ouch" and urged forward by "circumstances over which he had no control," poor John bounded on. The next moment he was in full view of the girls, and as he turned by the corner of the barn the snake came round with a whisk somewhat after the fashion of a coach whip.

Having reached the barn yard, to his dismay he found the bars up! But time was now too precious to be wasted in letting down bars—Gathering all his strength, he bounded into the air, snake ditto, and as he alighted upon the other side, his snakeship's tail cracked across the upper bar snapping like an India cracker.

Again John set forward, now utterly regardless of the presence of the girls, for the extra dash from the snake's tail, as he leapt the bars, banished all his bashfulness and modesty—and again he had the pleasure of seeing the snake in a straight line drawing steadily at the hem of his solitary garment.

The house now became his center of attraction, and around it revolved with the speed of thought. Four times in each revolution as he turned a corner, his snakeship came round with a whisk that was quite refreshing.

While describing his third circle, as he came near the group of wondering girls, without removing his gaze from the snake he managed to cry out,

"Call a man"

The next moment he had whisked out of sight and quick as thought re appeared upon the other side of the house—

"Call a man!"

And away he whirled again turning the corner so rapidly that the words of the snake sounded halfway between a low whistle and the repeated pronunciation of double o.

Before either of the girls had stirred from her tracks, he had performed another revolution—

"Call a man"

Away he flew once more, but his strength was rapidly failing. Nancy Clark was the first to recover her presence of mind, and seizing a hoop-pole she took her station near the corner of the house and as John reappeared, she brought it down upon the snake with a force that broke his back and his hold upon John's nether garment at the same time.

John rushed into the house and to his room, and at tea time appeared in his best Sunday suit looking but little the worse for his race, and to all appearances entirely cured of bashfulness. That night he walked home with Nancy Clark. The next New Year's they were married, and now whenever John feels inclined to laugh at his wife's hoops, she has only to say, "Call a man" when he instantly dries up.

LORD DERBY'S ATTACK ON LORD JOHN RUSSELL.—In the great debate in the British Parliament April 14th Lord Derby, in the course of his speech said,

"If we look back on the last few years, we shall see that Parliament itself has been the theatre of constant and unceasing rivalry between the two noble lords who have alternately been the leaders of the so called liberal party—[Hear.] I wish to speak of the noble lord the member for the city of London (J Russell) with all the respect I unfeignedly feel for his many valuable qualities and all his own to feel for the services he has conferred on his country. Nor can I have the slightest doubt of the sincerity of the noble lord in bringing forward the question of Parliamentary reform of that question he has been the consistent and unflinching advocate, to that question the noble lord is constitutionally attached, but attached less with the affection of a parent, anxious for the prosperity and advancement of his offspring, than with the jealous affection of a lover, ready to sacrifice anything to obtain the beloved object but ready also to die rather than that object should receive any attention, or owe either happiness or advancement to any other person. [Cheers and Laughter.]—The noble lord of whom I have spoken has many high and distinguished qualities, but there is combined with them a restless disposition, an insatiable craving always to be doing something and a determination that whatever is done shall be done by himself, or not at all. His indomitable perseverance in the discharge of business—which has hardly found sufficient scope in the performance of official duties—a second and with a degree of restlessness under which he can not be satisfied for a moment, unless he is seeking to do some injury to the cause of those who are acting against him.—The noble lord has had the singular fortune of having overthrown more successive governments than any other statesman (hear hear) and not only governments to which he is opposed—he has more than once been the means of overthrowing the government of which he was a member."

HOW TO PUNISH A WOMAN WHIPPER.—My attention was attracted by the appearance of a man who waited on the table during dinner, his dress was more that of a gentleman than a servant and his countenance peculiarly sad and subdued. I found my eyes continually wandering toward this individual whose manner and equipment, for he moved about wearily, and as if his task was a weary one.

After dinner the superintendent asked me if I had observed the waiter.

"Yes. Who is he? What is he?"

"The richest man in Eastern Paraguay. He had a very large well stocked estancia."

"And yet he is here as a servant?"

"Yes, he was guilty of the ungallant act of whipping a woman and the President has degraded him to be a servant at the Iron Works. He will at last liberate himself only by paying a large sum, or its equivalent in cattle."

So much for the rights of women, and the summary administration of the law in Paraguay.—Page's La Plata and Paraguay.

THE SUGAR CROP OF LOUISIANA.—Mr Champomier in his Annual Report on the sugar crop of Louisiana, estimates the yield at 362,296 hhds for the year 1858 being the largest crop ever produced in that State, with the exception of the year 1853, when the yield was 449 324 hhds. Mr C observes in reference to the subject:

"I have found that of the sugar houses in operation in this State some 1 294 of them having given an aggregate production of 362,296 hhds of sugar, weighing according to my estimate, 414 796 000 pounds of all sorts."

THE EUROPEAN AND NORTH AMERICAN RAILWAY.—The St John Courier thus refers to the recent railway debate in the New Brunswick Assembly:

The greater any undertaking is, more especially the greater any public undertaking is, in proportion to its magnitude must necessarily be the difficulties which the projectors, managers and constructors of the work in hand have to encounter. We are reminded of the truth of the observation just made by the difficulties which have been encountered from the day the European and North American Railway was projected by every promoter of this line up to the present hour. New Brunswick has we believe good reason to be proud of that portion of this great work which is now approaching completion. New Brunswickers have become the pioneer builders of a road which the wisest and most philanthropic men of two worlds regard as a great necessity for the progress of our race.

Some persons greatly doubt the propriety or expediency of the provincial Government directly undertaking and supervising the Railway.

It is not our present purpose to discuss the question here involved, but that in consequence of the Railway referred to having been the bone of contention between rival political parties in this province, much undeserved obloquy and misrepresentation have been suffered by many of the gentlemen connected with this line. We have remained generally from noticing the ill-tempered, rash, and slanderous attacks, which have been made by infatuated, mistaken and disappointed partisans and place seekers, on the Commissioners and other officers in charge of our Railway. We do not say that some good cause or the antagonism and bitterness of these assailants of the Government may have existed; but these are matters with which the whole people of New Brunswick are not so permanently interested as they are with the question "How does our Railway progress?"

Now that the 'hurly burly's done,' the time has arrived, when we think we can safely say to our fellow provincialists, our Line is doing well—we are certainly to have a good, permanent, safe, and comparatively cheap road.

The Continued Notes of War.—That there is soon to be war in Europe, and upon a great scale, now hardly admits of doubt—for the principal belligerents have evidently made up their minds to it, and all the talk at the Peace Congress, if one ever assembles, will not effect their determination. The difficulty is that the demand of France and Sardinia are such that Austria in her present excellent provisions for war will never concede. They will amount in the end, we think, to no less than the yielding up of all her Italian dominions, and the subversion of the treaties and arrangements of 1815. The editor and correspondents of the New York Courier & Enquirer, generally well informed upon European matters, consider that there has been at no time any good reason for believing the Congress, should it assemble, would produce any satisfactory results, since the basis insisted upon by Austria was that none of the treaties of 1815 should be discussed. Now as Louis Napoleon has asserted that he has espoused the cause of Italy, and as all the earnest advocates of this cause declare that nothing satisfactory can be obtained so long as Austria continues her domination in Italy, it is manifest that no arrangement can be entered into for maintaining peace, so long as the treaties of 1815 are to remain unimpaired. The safety of the Italian cause requires that Austrian domination in Italy should cease, and Austria as yet is by no means prepared to yield what was conceded to her by the above mentioned treaties. It is known that she has not respected those treaties, and all that the Peace Congress could decide would be that she should hereafter fulfil them to the letter. Granting that she should agree to do this, that she should no longer occupy territories in which she has no rights, that she should evacuate all the fortresses which she had no right to build, that she should concede to some of the States what she has unjustly denied them, and that she should at once desist from inflicting the punishments which have branded her name with shame, she would yet be entitled to a certain control over the affairs of the Italian Provinces inconsistent with the demands now made by them. When Louis Napoleon promised his assistance to Victor Emanuel, he lighted a torch which will not be extinguished until the Austrian rule shall be either exterminated or rendered more firm than it now is. This is the question now to be settled. Austria says that she will not recede from the Treaties of 1815, and France, in the name of Italy, asks her to withdraw entirely from the Italian Provinces.

The Cotton Manufacturers of Great Britain.—There are employed in spinning and weaving, printing, dyeing and bleaching cotton goods, in Great Britain, about 700,000 persons, and to these be added the machinists, builders, tenants, &c., it is said that it will be found that nearly one millions of individuals are dependent upon the prosperity of the cotton trade for their livelihood. The cotton manufacture of Great Britain and of other manufacturing nations has increased with such wonderful strides during the last fifty years, that the demand for cotton is outstripping the supply, and the English manufacturers have long been casting about for new regions where the great staple may be produced in such quantities as to prevent a scarcity of it.

☞ Margaret Burke, the servant girl arrested on suspicion of having poisoned Mrs. Beetham and her boarders, in New York, has been discharged. The coroner's jury found that the death of Mrs. Beetham and Mr Robinson, was caused by poison, administered by some person to the jury unknown. The verdict causes surprise in New York and is certainly a singular one, as large quantities of arsenic were discovered on the post-mortem examination of the deceased, and as Mrs. Beetham expressed the belief before she died that Margaret had poisoned her.

Outrages on Americans at Valparaiso.—Letters from Valparaiso state that during the outbreak which occurred on the 28th of February, some deadly assaults were made on the American residents by the government soldiers. Mr Horatio Gates Jones, an estimable man, was shot dead in the midst of his family, and his head was afterwards transfixed to the floor with a bayonet. His brother-in-law was mortally wounded. Dr. Bliss and Mr Albert Snee, American citizens, were both robbed, and the house of the American Consul, Dr. Trevitt, was rudely violated. Hon. Mr. Bigler, United States Minister, had already assured the Chilian government that full satisfaction must be given for these atrocities.

New Publications.

Sketches of the History of the Town of Camden. By John L. Locke. Hallowell: Masters, Smith & Co. 1859.

This very interesting volume embraces a larger amount of local information and a greater number and variety of facts relative both to the earlier and later history of the localities of which it treats than any other town history in this State. It takes up every incident of interest which has occurred in the town of Camden and the neighboring places and waters,—embracing many entertaining reminiscences of local adventures and enterprises during the last war with England. It is a book which may be read with interest anywhere.

Elements of Rhetoric; Designed as a Manual of Instruction. By Henry Coppee, A. M., Philadelphia: E. H. Butler & Co.—1859.

In this new treatise upon Rhetoric, the author, designing it for a text-book for schools, seeks as a primary quality to be perspicuous and simple, in the arrangement and treatment of his subject,—and as most of the text-books in this branch of study have failed to recognize the true relation of rhetoric to logic he makes these logical relations the most important division of his book. He endeavors, with success, as we believe, to combine in a manner suited to the comprehension of young students the elements both of the philosophical treatises upon rhetoric, and of those which treat chiefly of style.

The work is for sale by Bugbee & Co.

Revolutionary Field-Pieces.—The two pieces of ordnance captured from the British at the Battle of Bennington, and lately kept at the Cambridge arsenal, have been brought to the State House, at Boston, for deposit and exhibition. They are plain brass six-pounders, bearing the crown proof-mark, the name of the maker, and the date of manufacture, viz, 1780.

An Admission.—The N. Y. Journal of Commerce admits that "in all our calculations for the next Presidential campaign, we may as well assume that the twenty-seven electoral votes of Pennsylvania are mortgaged to the Republicans."

There are in the State of Oregon 135 flour mills, with a capacity of producing 2,500,000 barrels per annum.

Grace Church, Providence was commenced thirteen years ago, and is not yet finished.

"Presidential Movements." The Washington Republic thus comprehensively reviews the present standing of Democratic aspirants for the Presidential nomination next year:

"The 'movements' of the Democrats in the North to place their favorites upon the track for the succession do not seem to meet with favor from the people. Pierce's friends were here during the latter part of the session, 'feeling around' to see if he could not be 'rubbed down' and 'trotted out,' and they pretended, that if so, he could get his own State. New Hampshire responded, 'No!' The Buchanan 'movement' at the late Harrisburg Convention has divided the party in that State beyond hope of reunion. The Toucey 'movement,' which was contemplated, if he had carried Connecticut, has been most effectually baulked by the election. The Hunter and Wise 'movements,' in Virginia, bid fair to throw that State into the hands of the Opposition; and it is by no means certain that the Guthrie and Breckenridge 'movements' in Kentucky will not result in the triumph of the Opposition there.—Our private advices from Oregon, indicate that Joe Lane is losing ground there, and that either Republicans or personal friends of Judge Douglas will be returned to Congress in the places of both 'Delusion' Smith and W. A. Grover.

Indeed, there is not a single Northern 'pretender,' of them all, who can claim, with any show of consistency, that he can carry his own State."

The Pike's Peak Fever.—All accounts agree in representing that a great mass of people is moving towards the gold mines of Western Kansas. Of the character of the emigration, a letter dated 10th inst, from Manhattan, Kansas, in the Providence Journal says:

"The emigration thus far has consisted mostly of footmen, some with fifty to a hundred pounds on their back, others with hand carts drawn by from four to twelve men, looking like a fire company; others who will have an odd ox hitched to it, some with a mule or an old horse. Some of these men, and in fact a large majority of them, have not five dollars in money about them. A few of these, with their provisions on their backs, have nothing in fact in the way of food excepting corn, which they live upon roasted. This class of men will cause much trouble, for it will be impossible for them to get through, and they are intending, no doubt, to rob the trains on the route; and, in fact, we have already heard of such cases—two parties have returned who went out very early, having been robbed of all their provisions and obliged to return for more. Not a day passes but a large number of this gentry cross the ferry. They are a hard set to look at."

The writer adds:

"The great express train of Russell & Jones commence their trips daily, the coming week. They have already sold $80,000 worth of tickets, and are obliged to start with two coaches per day. The rush is tremendous. Their supply train passed through here about ten days ago, with provisions to supply their stations, which are about twenty-five to thirty miles apart. They intend to make about one hundred miles per day. This company also sell tickets to footmen to stop at their stations to eat charging forty five dollars a ticket in advance."

Sale of Antioch College.—The Antioch College, which was placed under the charge of John Kebler, Master Commissioner, in a suit brought in the U. S. Court against the institution by a Connecticut Insurance Company, was disposed of yesterday to a Mr. Cummings for $40,000—two thirds of the valuation.—The trustees and officers of the college were anxious the sale should take place, but it really amounts to nothing more than a transfer from one corporation to another.—Cincinnati Enquirer, 21st.

Duffy's May Day Sale. On Saturday the 30th inst., at Duffy's extensive Green House on the Hampden-road, there will be a sale of choice and valuable plants as per advertisement. The variety and stock is large. The sale will be continued on Monday.

Levee and Fair.—We again remind our readers of the Levee and Fair of the Young Ladies of the First Parish, which is to be held at Norombega Hall next Monday evening. From the reports that have come to our ears, we think we are justified in saying that this May Day Festival will be a very creditable affair—well worthy of the day and the object, and that the beauty of the city, with their handiwork, will be visible on the occasion.

Cosmopolitan Art Association.—The engraving "The Village Blacksmith," is received and will be furnished to subscribers upon application at the counting room of D. M. Howard, Hon. Secretary for this city.

If any subscribers have not received the Art Journal by mail are requested to inform Mr Howard of the fact in order that they may be supplied.

How Bangor appears to the Stranger.—A travelling correspondent of the Maine Farmer, gives our city a number of complimentary notices, generally deserved we believe—and details some of neighbor McLaughlin's agricultural operations. We extract some paragraphs:

The Queen City of the East, is aroused to activity and life, with the early opening of spring. After three or four years of business depression, and pecuniary disaster, the business men of this city seem to have recovered their former noted vigor, and are engaging in new enterprises, with confident assurances of success.

The prices of all kinds of building lumber are very satisfactory and encouraging. The prices range much higher than they have done for years past; there is an active demand; and I am told, by those who understand all about these matters, that neither the prices, nor the active demand, are expected to decline. The improvements which are in progress in every part of the city, show that this feeling is prevalent. Prudent business men do not commence large outlays of money in buildings and other improvements, unless they expect business is to be good, or in other words, they expect good times.

In addition to the large improvements, foundations are being laid for new buildings in every part of the city. The sound of the hammer and of the trowel is every where heard, and as the season advances, Bangor is not fail of making a very important stride towards her manifest destiny, of eventually being the first city in Maine.

The traveling facilities between Bangor and elsewhere in every direction, are unsurpassed by any other places in Maine. The steamer Menemon Sanford makes two trips a week to Boston. The steamer Daniel Webster makes three trips a week to Portland, connecting in that city with the cars for Boston. Fare to Boston $3 00. Three trains of cars run daily for Oldtown, connecting at Oldtown with a steamer that runs daily up the Penobscot 48 miles to Winn. Daily stages leave by three different routes for Calais. Daily stages also run to Houlton and Mattawamkeag, to Castine, Belfast, and by different routes to every part of Upper Penobscot and Piscataquis. A person can scarcely desire to go to any point in the State or out of it, to which he will not find a ready and safe conveyance.

"Mine host" of the Franklin House is not only an excellent Landlord, but he is an enterprising and skillful Farmer. He has forty acres of land a mile out of the city, which he bought some four years ago for about one hundred dollars per acre. It was then an unproductive pasture land—but such land as there are tens of thousands acres in every direction which are esteemed to be poor land. Since then he has brought it under a high state of cultivation, and the products of it last year were as follows:

60 tons of hay, worth $20 per ton,	$1,[illegible]00
400 bush. potatoes,	200
50 " corn,	60
25 " beans,	30
210 " barley,	215
400 heads cabbages, some weighing 20 lbs	80
200 bush. turnips,	50
25 " carrots,	20
3 tons squashes,	100
Beets,	10
Sweet corn, $20 worth sold, $10 worth used,	30
95 bush. early potatoes ready for the table July 15; could have been sold in the market at $2 per bush.,	50
Parsnips,	5

Mr. McLaughlin says that the whole expense for labor to carry on the farm last year did not exceed three hundred dollars, leaving a net income above the expense for labor, of more than fourteen hundred dollars.

It will be said that Mr. McLaughlin has an abundance of manure, and so he can render his land thus productive; which all farmers cannot do for the want of manure. It is true that all farmers cannot manure forty acres and make it thus productive, but every one who has a yoke of Oxen, two cows, ten sheep, and two hogs, can manure two acres and make it as productive as his. More than four hundred dollars worth of the produce of this farm was raised on a single acre of land, and just as soon as farmers will reduce their farms one half, they will double their profits.

The writer complains that no one offered him a seat at the Hammond Street Church, where he went on Fast Day. We think the Sexton must have been absent—for there is usually the most prompt civility offered to strangers, there and at all the churches.

Notice to Endorsers.—The Bath Times says Judge Cutting decided on Tuesday that a common bank notice to an endorser of a note, on the last day of grace, sent through the Post Office, was not a legal notice, and did not hold the endorser.

East Maine Conference.

Rockland, April 26th, 1859.

Our last was closed with the Saturday forenoon's session. The afternoon and evening were devoted to educational meetings, with special reference to the East Maine Conference Seminary. Quite a number of clergymen made addresses. The agent had secured about $16,000, and $7000 more are necessary to pay the debts and complete the endowment. Nearly $1500 were subscribed at these meetings.

At 9½ o'clock, Sunday morning, the Conference Love Feast commenced. The church could not contain the people who wished to enjoy the meeting. It was an hour of deep interest.

At 10½ o'clock Bishop Ames preached from 1 Cor. 15th chapter, last verse. It was a lucid exposition of the great doctrine of faith, beautifully justified, and received with much favor by the audience. After the sermon, five young ministers were ordained deacons. At 2 P. M. Rev. L. H. Curtis, of the Bangor District preached in the M. E. Church, and nine were ordained elders. In the evening a service was held in reference to the death of Rev. J. C. Prime, a superannuated member of the Conference, formerly of your city, who died in Bloomington, Ill. Several brethren who had been associated with him in the itinerant work, spoke on the occasion. The churches in the village, and at Rockland, were supplied by members of the Conference.

Monday morning, at 7½ o'clock, met for the last session of the body. Rev. S. H. Beale led the devotional services. Several reports were read and adopted. Visitors were appointed to literary institutions, Delegates to the Conventions of other denominations, &c., &c. The Journal was read, a song of praise ascended to God, prayer was offered, the Bishop made some brief and pertinent remarks, and the appointments were announced.

It was an uncommonly pleasant session of the Conference. The good people of Thomaston manifested great liberality and kindness, and the Conference was never more kindly and liberally entertained. With many thanks for many blessings, we parted for our respective fields of labor.

N. B.—Mr BONNER has the pleasure of announcing that CHARLES DICKENS, who is universally conceded to be the most popular author living, has been engaged to write a Tale expressly for the columns of the LEDGER, and that he is now at work upon it. Advance sheets of Mr Dickens's stories, have, at different times, been obtained by American publishers; but this is the first time that a tale has been written expressly and solely for an American periodical by such an eminent European author as Mr Dickens; and yet Mr. Bonner would not have the public suppose that he thinks there is anything very remarkable about this engagement; it is only part and parcel of his policy.

MARION and his MEN. THE ANXIOUSLY-LOOKED FOR AND DEEPLY EXCITING TALE OF THE REVOLUTION! NOW READY THE SWAMP FOX, OR, THE Rebel Riflemen. A TALE OF THE TIMES AND FEATS OF MARION, BY GEORGE ALBANY, ESQ., Author of "The Orange Girl of Venice," "The Swamp Steed," "Rube the Ranger," &c., &c., will be commenced in the NEW YORK MERCURY Of Saturday, April 30, 1859, Now ready at all News Depots and Bookstores!

No character in history offers a better subject for the Romancer, than that of MARION, or, as he was familiarly called, "THE SWAMP FOX," from the immense ingenuity of his stratagems and devices for misleading and deceiving the enemy, his thorough knowledge of the woods, forests, fields and swamps of his native region, where he and his gallant band were perfectly at home, while their enemies became lost and bewildered in the labrinthine mazes of undergrowth and morass.

The story above announced is a true reflex of those scenes and times, and its talented author has most vividly portrayed, therein, the many exciting incidents and accidents of a tenacious and indefatigable struggle for liberty, pursued under the most adverse circumstances. Every chapter is replete with exciting and romantic interest, historically accurate, but with a sparkling web of poetry woven through it, which makes it at once a brilliant story and a veracious record. The strongly-written descriptions of events—the ambuscade—the sudden sortie—the night attack—the wild charge and repulse—are all wonderful as examples of word painting, and equally true to the actual facts.

In Addition to these scenes of heroism and lofty daring the Swamp Fox is not without the gentle charm of a love story, for the working and the effects of the tender passions are depicted in its pages, as truly and artistically as the sterner emotions, rendering the tale a perfect picture of life and character in the Days of the Revolution, which cannot fail to appeal to the admiration, and gratify the taste of every reader who has a spark of true patriotism in his soul.

The peculiar power and interest with which the gifted author George Albany, Esq., describes the thrilling period, is a guarantee of the excellence of this truly magnificent Historical Romance. The vivid delineation of character, the depth of thought, the fascination of style, the picturesque beauty of description, and, in a word, the power of language he commands, all combine to render him one of the most brilliant writers of the age, while his great appreciation of and sympathy with the pioneers in the cause of universal liberty, give him a grasp of Revolutionary subjects possessed by very few others.—This has enabled him, in the Swamp Fox, to exhibit the life and adventures of MARION AND HIS MEN as they really were, and to do fit homage to that deliberate valor, that unyielding patriotism, which, in a few noble spirits, defying danger, and above the scenes of privation, could keep alive the sacred fires of liberty in the thick swamps and dense and gloomy forests—asking nothing, yielding nothing, and only leaving the field the better to re-enter it for the combat!

We take to ourselves some credit, for having secured for our columns the chefs d' œuvres of this master's pen, but we intend to give the NEW YORK MERCURY a still higher prestige than ever. We believe it is already the BEST AND LARGEST STORY PAPER in the world, and we contemplate making it better and better, with every successive number, in spite of all expense and opposition.

BAYARD TAYLOR ENGAGED EXCLUSIVELY FOR THE NEW YORK MERCURY! At a very heavy expense we have succeeded in securing the celebrated POET, AUTHOR AND TOURIST, whose charming letters from foreign lands have long kept the world delighted and interested, BAYARD TAYLOR, ESQ., who will hereafter make the MERCURY the only recipient of his inestimable SKETCHES OF TRAVEL, one of which will appear EVERY WEEK. We have the happiness to announce therefore, that in the New York Mercury for April 30th, 1859, will be commenced STRAY CHAPTERS Of LIFE and TRAVEL, BY BAYARD TAYLOR, the initiatory article being entitled "The First Journey I ever made," which is considered by the author—as it unquestionably will be by the public—to be his most interesting adventure since the original outset of the GREAT AMERICAN TRAVELLER, and cannot fail to be of interest to all. These delightful articles will be BEAUTIFULLY ILLUSTRATED with original designs, in the highest style of the art, portraying the scenes and characters described in the most graphic manner.

This new feature is a most valuable and instructive one, suited to both young and old, and will render THE NEW YORK MERCURY worthy of a leading place as the most refined and elegant of all FAMILY PAPERS.

Since the first announcement of our engagement of MR. TAYLOR, we have received a flood of inquiries from all parts of the Union, relative to the enterprise, showing that public expectation is on tip-toe to learn the particulars regarding the character of his contributions. As it is impossible for us to answer these in detail, we can only refer our friends and correspondents to the NEW YORK MERCURY for APRIL 30, where the first of these sparkling and popular sketches will be found.

As no other American has ever traveled so extensively as BAYARD TAYLOR, and no other traveler can see things with the eyes of America, we need not further eulogize the value of these emanations of his mind and observation, to the reading public. It is sufficient to say that they will greatly enhance the high character that the MERCURY has ever maintained, and that has heretofore rested upon many causes, some of the most important of which may be summed up as follows:

THE MERCURY employs more literary talent than any other paper.
THE MERCURY pays more, and higher prices for that talent than any other paper.
THE MERCURY is constantly announcing new, startling and brilliant additions to its already unexampled fund of attractions.
THE MERCURY is illustrated by F. O. C. Darley, Esq., the greatest artist of this century and his beautiful pictures are thus brought within the reach of the entire public.
THE MERCURY is the oldest and most firmly established literary journal in America.
THE MERCURY, during the twenty-one years of its prosperous existence, has published a larger number of popular original tales, romances, and sketches than all its imitators combined.
THE MERCURY must be seen to be appreciated, and we are fully determined to make its name "familiar as a household word," with every family in the land.
THE MERCURY is for sale by all news-dealers and booksellers in every part of the country, and subscriptions are received for it at every Post Office.

It will be seen from the foregoing announcement, that the MERCURY for April 30th, 1859, will be an excellent number for subscribers to date their subscriptions from.

TELEGRAPHIC

TO THE DAILY WHIG AND COURIER.

Arrival of the Steamship Africa at New York.

New York, April 28.

The Royal mail steamship Africa, from Liverpool 16th, reached her wharf at half-past six this evening. Her news has been mainly anticipated by the Circassian at St. John's, N. F.

The Paris Patrie says France cannot be expected to diminish her army, nor to send back a single cannon to her arsenals.

A St. Petersburg despatch of 14th, announces that in consequence of a victory by Gen. Wrangel, two thousand Circassians had come into the Russian camp.

The Times Paris correspondent describes the aspect of affairs so sombre as to justify the renunciation of all hopes of peace.

Five thousand more troops had arrived in Marseilles from Algiers.

Britain.

In the Commons Lord Stanley had stated that the duty on hardware in India was to be increased from five to ten per cent on both foreign and British manufactures.

The missing part of the crew of the wrecked gunboat Jaseur had been saved, and all the survivors had reached England in the steamer La Plata. Of the whole crew only three were lost.

A duel had occurred on the Downs, near Brighton, between a young American gentleman, for the past year residing at Brighton, and a Russian officer lately attached to the Legation at Washington. The former, who gave the challenge, was shot in the pistol hand, when an explanation was made by the opposite party and admitted.

Thirty of the Neapolitan exiles have left England.

Lady Morgan, the authoress, was dead.

France.

All the French officers on leave have been ordered to join their ships forthwith.

The receipt of a memorandum from Count Buol hostile to Piedmont, was spoken of.

War materials are accumulating at Marseilles to an alarming extent.

Five steam frigates had gone to Algeria, it is supposed to bring troops back to France.

The Journal of diplomatique had been allowed to resume its issue.

The Daily News correspondent says: Lord Cowley and Count Walewski, after a long discussion, separated with the conviction that very serious difference of opinion exist between France and England.

Nine gunboats for the Adriatic are ordered to be made ready at Cherbourg without delay.

Austria.

The Arch Duke Albrecht had gone on a special mission to Berlin.

Austria was willing to make important concessions to Prussia, on certain points in dispute, and a perfect understanding then was considered highly probable.

Warlike preparations continued to be made by some of the smaller German States.

The Bavarian army had been placed on a war footing.

Italy.

The political prisoners at Naples, whose late was determined by decree of 18th, had received passports to the United States.

It was reported at Rome that the Pope would protest against the European Congress.

Rumors were current that the King of Naples was either dead or in the last extremities. Nothing authentic was known however.

Holland and Belgium are said to have concluded a treaty for mutual defence in case of war.

Russia.

The opening of navigation was anticipated in about eight days.

Egypt.

Advices are favorable to the Suez Canal. Public functionaries were ordered to assist M. Lesseps, and the government of Suez had been deposed.

India and China.

Letters add nothing of moment to the accounts already published. The export of tea to the United States showed a decrease of 807,000 pounds from last year. At Amoy there was stopped by a report that a body of rebels had attacked Chung Chaw. The report required confirmation.

At Foo Chaw freights to New York were down to $10.

Washington, April 28.

This afternoon Senor Mata was formally presented to the President by Secretary Cass. In delivering the letter which accredited him as the Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary of the Mexican Republic to the government of the United States, he conveyed to the President at the same time the sentiments of friendship and high regard which the constitutional government as well as the people of Mexico entertained for him and for the citizens of this great Republic. Senor Mata continuing, said, the first and certainly the most gratifying of my duties in the act of presenting myself to your Excellency in my official character, is to ensure you of the sincere desire which I have to draw into closer unity the relations under your Excellency's government and those of the government of my own country. The desire by which I am actuated is that of contributing to the extent of my ability to the development of the interests of both countries, and the hope which I cherish is that the two Republics, already united by common principles and like interests, will become daily more so, until they shall have held up to the world the glorious evidence of two nations connected by bonds of perfect brotherhood. It is peculiarly gratifying to me to have it in my power to present to your Excellency, on this occasion, the well-deserved tribute of my profound respect for your person, and give expression to the fervent wishes which I entertain for the advancing march of the people of the United States, under your Excellency's administration, in the pathways of freedom, civilization and progress, in which they have so nobly entered.

The President in the course of his reply said that the government of the people of the United States had always regarded with the deepest concern the events transpiring in the sister republic. Their desire had always been to establish such relations as would enable the two countries to live on terms of peace and good neighborhood and to fully develop their mutual and reciprocal interests in recognizing the constitutional government of Mexico; we had followed the course heretofore pursued, and this was done as soon as it was ascertained that the government was capable of maintaining its authority and was sustained by the people. He was gratified that for the first time in their history, they had so generally declared for the constitution and laws, and that the revolutionary movements of a military chieftain had been so signally defeated. The interview is represented as having been of a highly gratifying character.

Philadelphia, April 28.

Ex-Judge Vandersmith, of Lancaster, was convicted in the U. S. District Court to-day, on two indictments for forging fraudulent pension claims. Four other indictments were barred by the statute of limitation.

New York, 28th.

The Brooklyn water celebration was a great affair. The procession was of immense length, being over two hours passing a given point. The day was auspicious.

St. Louis, April 28.

A strike among the laborers in some of the brick yards, which has been in progress for several days, assumed a riotous character yesterday, and a considerable amount of property was destroyed. The police were called out, and after a slight skirmish, resulting in the wounding of several laborers and two policemen, the rioters were dispersed. This morning the men assembled again in large numbers and assumed such a threatening attitude that the Mayor gave orders to the military to preserve the peace.

Anderson's saw mill was burned yesterday; loss $30,000.

Sandy Hook, 28th.

The sch Wanking of Sullivan, in ballast, is ashore abreast of the station house on Sandy Hook. She is tight and all the crew are on board; the wind being fresh from the east. Should the wind moderate there will be some chance of getting her off. At low water she will be high and dry, as she lies inside of the bar.

Numbering Streets.—Mr. Lewis Waterman is at Belfast, and proposes to number the streets of that city. He thoroughly understands the business and will do it well.

Personal.—Prof. Grimes returned from Ellsworth yesterday, and was at the Bangor House last evening. He lectures at Searsport to-night, and will probably visit Belfast and Rockland.

Death on Board a Steamer.—Mr. Wm. H. Pike, Jr., of Calais, who has been spending a year or two at the Sandwich Islands, recently returned to New Bedford in a whaling ship, an invalid from consumption. He took the steamer from Boston to Eastport and at the latter place, on Tuesday, took the steamer Isabel Queen for Calais. When almost within sight of home, he sank away and expired on board the boat. A tender and affectionate sister accompanied him from New Bedford, and was with him in his last moments.

New Hotel.—Our neighbor, J. Whitney is about building a new hotel here, on the site of the one now occupied by him. In fact the workmen have already commenced on it. The main house is to be 40 X 34 feet, three stories, and the L 30 X 22 feet, two stories. This will be quite an addition to our village.—Bridgton Reporter.

Still Coming.—We have received a letter from a gentleman in Pembroke, Me., informing us that a company of steady men belonging there, together with some more who are about to leave England to join in the same company, are anxious to settle in the county of Aroostook, where they can form a neighborhood by themselves. There is plenty room and the company will undoubtedly find a location to please them.—Aroostook Pioneer.

Hammonton.—Mr. A. J. Stephenson, of Belfast, Me., writes us that he spent the past winter in Hammonton, N. J., and having been in both places, he says—"I give the Aroostook the preference, two to one."—Pioneer.

Liquor Law Decision.—Judge Hoar, of the Supreme Court, with the concurrence of his associates, has decided that imprisonment for the non-payment of fine and costs, imposed for a violation of the liquor law, is no part of the sentence of imprisonment provided for in the statutes, and has ordered a woman so held in the House of Correction at New Bedford to be discharged.

'My son,' said a doting father, who was about taking his son into business, 'what shall be the style of the new firm?' 'Well governor,' said the one-and-twenty youth, looking up to find an answer, 'I don't know, but s'pose we call it John H. Samplin & Father.'

The private library of the late Rufus W. Griswold is to be sold at auction in New York, on the 23d of May. The catalogue embraces 3280 separate works which would make not less than 10,000 volumes.

Valuable Timber Land.

Assignees' Sale.

I NOW OFFER for sale the following described tract or parcel of land, viz:

2048 undivided (being 12760 acres more or less) of township No. 8 Range 4, East of Penobscot River, and North of Lottery Lands, so called, in Washington County, State of Maine. Said Township is favorably located for lumbering operations, and contains a large amount of valuable timber. For farming purposes it is reported to be superior to any Township in that section of the State.

Said lands will be sold subject to a mortgage to the late Thomas Drew.

I have a plan of the Township, and will furnish a copy to any one wishing to examine the land with the view of purchasing.

For information in regard to title, terms of sale, &c., call on me. J. B. FOSTER, Com. Merch't and Auct'r, Office—M. M. M. Ins. Office.

California Steamers,

Carrying the United States Mail.

5th and 20th of each month.

Through Tickets, including transit of the Isthmus, via. Panama R. R.

CAUTION TO THE PUBLIC.

On account of the numerous frauds and impositions on travelers, those bound to California are cautioned to buy Tickets at the only authorized Agencies of the United States Mail Line, as below.

By order of the Post-master General, the United States Mail Steamers will hereafter be despatched from New York to Aspinwall, on the 5th and 20th of each month.

Passengers are landed at the Railroad Depot, Aspinwall, and conveyed across to the Pacific Steamers without any extra expense. This is the only line giving entire Through Tickets, guaranteeing no detention on the Isthmus.

The transit is made in four hours entirely by daylight, thus avoiding the great exposure by night in open boats to fever and ague, and 200 miles of dangerous lake and river navigation, over rocks and shoals.

Arrangements have now been completed so that the regular U. S. Pacific Mail Steamer will leave Panama for San Francisco immediately on arrival of the Atlantic Mails and passengers, thus insuring passengers by the Mail Line a sure and short passage, with the greatest comfort and safety to health.

Tickets must be signed by one of the Company's Agents before they will be recognized by the Agent at Panama, and tickets thus signed can be obtained of the only authorized Agent for the U. S. and Pacific Mail Steamship Companies, in this city. C. L. BARTLETT, Agent, No. 16 Broad street, Boston.

American & Foreign Patents

R. H. EDDY,
SOLICITOR OF PATENTS,
Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington under the Act of 1837,)
76 State St., opposite Kilby St.,
BOSTON.

AFTER an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also, in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Bonds, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with despatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of Patents or Inventions—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

The Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing Patents, of ascertaining the patentability of inventions unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The Testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate. The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents. These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.

All necessity of a journey to Washington, to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there are here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.

"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and most successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse." CHAS. MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.

"I have no hesitation in assuring Inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their applications in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office. EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.
"Boston, February 8, 1858.

Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but one of which patents have been granted, and that is now pending. Such unmistakeable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges. JOHN TAGGERT."

From Sept. 17th, 1857, to June 17th, 1858, the subscriber, in course of his large practice, made on twice rejected applications, SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents.

PURELY VEGETABLE!

THE Great English Alterative

....AND....

Humor Eradicator,

DISCOVERED by an eminent English Surgeon, after years of study.

This Medicine is unquestionably the best Alterative ever used; Purifying the Blood, giving new and healthy impulse to the functions of the system, and rejuvenating the infirm. It eradicates, at once, all kinds of Humors. Cutaneous Eruptions, Cancerous affections, Scaly Eruptions, Leprosy, and all kindred diseases, which have their origin in impurities of the blood.

For Scrofula it may properly be regarded as a Specific. No other preparation known to the world so promptly and effectually cures this fearful malady. "Cleanse the fountain and the stream will be pure." Purify the blood and the system will be healthy. Take this Alterative and the blood will be purified. To all who are suffering from Chronic Rheumatism, Liver Complaint, Jaundice, Piles, Humor in the Eyes, Salt Rheum, Blotches in the face, and General Debility, this remedy is offered with the utmost confidence that it will afford speedy relief.

CODMAN HOUSE,

RE-OPENED!

This spacious and commodious House has been recently refitted and opened for the accommodation of the public, under the management of J. A. BACHELDER; whose observation and experience as a Hotel keeper is unsurpassed. One of the best Cooks in the country will officiate in the kitchen.

The location of the House, and its appointments, cannot fail to render it one of the most pleasant and convenient stopping places in the country.

In connection with the House is a large Hall for the accommodation of parties. Also, a large and convenient Stable, with double and single stalls, as may be desired; and having secured the services of one of the most experienced Hostlers, the public may be assured that their Horses will receive the best of care and attention. There is also a large stable fitted up with stancheons for cattle, separate or in droves.

Special pains will be taken to accommodate people emigrating to the Aroostook on the most reasonable terms.

YOU HAD BETTER TRY MY MOTHER'S SALVE!

THIS CELEBRATED PREPARATION has obtained an enviable and WORLD-WIDE reputation for its GREAT CURATIVE PROPERTIES, and has been the agent of relieving so many sufferers to health and usefulness, that the proprietors feel it a duty they owe to the public for their generous patronage bestowed upon this SALVE to make it accessible to rich and poor, that all afflicted may avail themselves of its healing qualities.

"MY MOTHER'S SALVE"

Is a PERFECT CHEMICAL COMPOUND, prepared from Roots, HERBS AND GUMS, gathered from the forest, and possesses Healing, Soothing and Pain-Relieving Virtues never before combined in a Salve or Ointment.

"MY MOTHER'S SALVE"

Is SAFE AND EFFECTUAL, and all those troubled with RHEUMATISM, SALT RHEUM, ERYSIPELAS, GOUT, PILES, and such like diseases, will find in its use great relief, and in most cases a PERMANENT CURE.

"MY MOTHER'S SALVE"

In a BURN or SCALD takes out the fire, soothes the irritating pain, and heals the wound more speedily and effectually than any other preparation.

"MY MOTHER'S SALVE"

Is worthy of confidence, and thousands having used it and recommended it to their friends is a test of its worth. Directions for using

"MY MOTHER'S SALVE"

are simple. Every mother and nurse knows how to spread a plaster and dress a sore, and all who use the Salve will apply it in proportions, renewed at times as good judgment may direct. For Rheumatism and other pains, rub the parts smartly with the Salve. In case of Cough, Tightness of the Lungs, Sore Throat and such like ails, rub as in case of Rheumatism. In any case of pain a good result follows the use of this Salve. Prepared by A. M. BECK.

PERRY DAVIS'

Vegetable Pain Killer!

REV. T. ALLEN, writing from Tavoy, Burmah, says:—Within the past four years I have used and disposed of above five hundred bottles; but am now out. Please send me a fresh supply (through the Mission Rooms) as soon as you can, say two hundred bottles. I dare not be without it myself, and there are endless calls for it, both by Karens and Burmans. I always take it with me into the jungles, and have frequent occasions to use it both on myself and others.—One night while sleeping in an open Zayat, I was awoke by a most excruciating pain in my foot. On examination I found I had been bitten by a Centipede. I immediately applied the Pain Killer; and found instant relief. In less than an hour I was again asleep.

Rev. H. L. Van Meter, of Bassein, India, writes:—Here let me assure you that we prize your Pain Killer very highly. For the first two or three years of our residence in India we were ignorant of its valuable properties, and did not use it, but now would hardly feel safe without it for a single day! Only a few nights since Mrs. Van Meter was stung by a scorpion, and intense pain was instantaneous throughout the arm, and soon a numbness of the fingers followed. By the continued application of the Pain Killer for an hour or more, and at intervals during the night, the alarming symptoms were subdued, and in the morning only a slight soreness was felt in the finger. I gave it in a severe case of Fever and Ague, according to directions, and it acted like a charm, breaking it up at once. The Karens have great confidence in it.

Mr. W. L. Carpenter writes from Calcutta,—"Perry Davis' Vegetable Pain Killer is a very valuable medicine, and most people here that have used it entertain a high opinion of its worth."

Bombay, Dec. 4th, 1857.

Messrs. P. Davis & Son—Gents: We have sold the shipment of Pain Killer per ship Martha, and hope to close that per ship .... in a few days. Herewith find a draft for £50 on the Mercantile Bank of India, London and China, to your order. Hope to remit you soon for sale ex .... Yours truly,
[illegible]

Melbourne, Australia, May 14, 1858.

Messrs. P. Davis & Son—Gents: The "S. H. Talbot," with 54 boxes, and the "State of Maine," with 50 boxes of your valuable Pain Killer, have arrived, and the Pain Killer is sold at 30s per dozen. Neither of the lots are landed yet, but we hope they will be in time for us to forward your account sales and remittance by this mail. The two shipments are divided among four different buyers, two of whom would take the whole 104 boxes if we would allow it. This is the best argument we can make on your Pain Killer. Send us frequent shipments. NEWELL, HOOPER & STEVENS.

THE LIVER INVIGORATOR!

PREPARED BY DR. SANFORD,

Compounded entirely from Gums,

IS ONE OF THE BEST PURGATIVE AND Liver Medicines now before the public.

These Gums remove all morbid or bad matter from the system, supplying in their place a healthy flow of bile; invigorating the stomach, causing food to digest well, purifying the blood, giving tone and health to the whole machinery, removing the cause of the disease—effecting a radical cure.

Bilious attacks are cured, and, what is better, prevented, by the occasional use of the Liver Invigorator.

One dose after eating is sufficient to relieve the stomach and prevent the food from rising and souring.

Only one dose taken before retiring prevents nightmare.

Only one dose taken at night loosens the bowels gently, and cures costiveness.

One dose taken after each meal will cure Dyspepsia.

One dose of two teaspoonfuls will always relieve Sick Headache.

Only one dose immediately relieves Colic, while

One dose often repeated is a sure cure for Cholera Morbus, and a preventive of Cholera.

Only one bottle is needed to throw out of the system the effects of medicine after a long sickness.

One bottle taken for Jaundice removes all sallowness or unnatural color from the skin.

One dose taken a short time before eating gives vigor to the appetite and makes the food digest well.

One dose, often repeated, cures Chronic Diarrhea in its worst forms, while Summer and Bowel Complaints yield almost to the first dose.

A few bottles will cure Dropsy by exciting the absorbents.

We take pleasure in recommending this medicine as a preventive for Fever and Ague, Chill Fever, and all Fevers of a Bilious type. It operates with certainty, and thousands are willing to testify to its wonderful virtues.

All who use it are giving their unanimous testimony in its favor.

Mix water in the mouth with the Invigorator, and swallow both together.

Price One Dollar per Bottle.
